The Lion cub and the Tiger cub

Once upon a time there lived two silly friends.

One fine day the lion cub said, "It is hot."

"It's not," said the tiger cub.

"It is," said the lion cub.

"It is not," said the tiger cub.

Both of them started fighting. That made them sad. In the middle of the day an old man came and said, "You silly friends, it is cold under the tree and hot in the sun."
